Universal Themes in Literature

*Remember – themes need to be referred to in phrase format rather than a one or two-word statement.

1. Alienation - creating emotional isolation
2. Betrayal - fading bonds of love
3. Birth - life after loss, life sustains tragedy
4. Coming of age - boy becomes a man
5. Conformity - industrialization and the conformity of man
6. Death - death as mystery, death as a new beginning
7. Deception - appearance versus reality
8. Discovery - conquering unknown, discovering strength
9. Duty - the ethics of killing for duty
10. Escape - escape from family pressures, escaping social constraints
11. Family - destruction of family
12. Fortune - a fall from grace and fortune
13. Generation gap - experience versus youthful strength
14. God and spirituality - inner struggle of faith
15. Good and evil - the coexistence of good and evil on earth
16. Heroism - false heroism, heroism and conflicting values
17. Home - security of a homestead
18. Hope - hope rebounds
19. Hopelessness - finding hope after tragedy
20. Individualism - choosing between security and individualism
21. Isolation - the isolation of a soul
22. Journey - most journeys lead back to home
23. Judgment - balance between justice and judgment
24. Loss - loss of innocence, loss of individualism
25. Love - love sustains/fades with a challenge
26. Patriotism - inner conflicts stemming from patriotism
27. Peace and war - war is tragic, peace is fleeting
28. Power - Lust for power
29. Race relations - learned racism
30. Sense of self - finding strength from within
31. Suffering - suffering as a natural part of human experience
32. Survival - man against nature
These themes can be identified in most classic books. The exception is tragic flaw found in Shakespeare’s tragic heroes. If you remember Romeo And Juliet from 9th grade English, Romeo’s impulsiveness was his tragic flaw, and it ended up destroying him.

Universal Themes in Literature

1. Rites of passage. Loss of innocence. (This suggests a character's awareness of his/her world changes as the book progresses.)

2. Betrayal in various forms: Includes self-deception and misconception.

3. The delineation or dramatization of evil as a force within or beyond man--or the absence of it in modern fiction and drama; the fight between good and evil

4. The individualist in revolt against social conformity, or in conflict with the rules of society

5. The past as a loss, a value, an obsession, or an escape

6. Alienation, isolation, or impotence of modern man

7. The search for moral structure, purpose, hope, truth, or a personal dream

8. Man's inhumanity to his fellow man

9. The irrationality of the "rational" institution

10. Slavery, "absolute power," domination over others, or possessiveness

11. Conflicting loyalties: You're in trouble if you do; you're in trouble if you don't.

12. The tragic vanity: A character's attempt to perfect society or his/her part in it

13. Idolatry: Worshipping false gods, etc.

14. Psychological freedom through love and integrity

15. Illusion vs. Reality

16. Man: The social beast

17. Fate: The dominating force in man's life
18. Tragic Flaw (really most applicable to Shakespeare)

19. Violation of the guest-host relationship

Universal Themes in Literature

Definition of Theme

The theme of a piece of fiction is its controlling idea or its central insight. In order to figure out theme, a reader must ask what view of life a work supports or what insight into life in the real world it reveals.

Definition of Universal Theme

Frequently, a work of fiction implies a few ideas about the nature of all men and women or about the relationship of human beings to each other or to the universe. These are called universal themes.

Examples of Universal Themes

As expressed by authors, themes involve positions on these familiar issues:

- A human being’s confrontation with nature
- A human being’s lack of humanity
- A rebellious human being’s confrontation with a hostile society
- An individual’s struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment
- An individual’s conflict between passion and responsibility
- The human glorification of the past/rejection of the past
- The tension between the ideal and the real
- Conflict between human beings and machines
- The impact of the past on the present
- The inevitability of fate
- The evil of unchecked ambition
- The struggle for equality
- The loss of innocence/disillusionment of adulthood
- The conflict between parents and children
- The making of an artist in a materialistic society
- The clash between civilization and the wilderness
- The clash between appearance and realities
- The pain of love (or what passes for it)
- The perils or rewards of carpe diem